Choose who you are

Eight seats. One future. Every run fills in the danger codex.

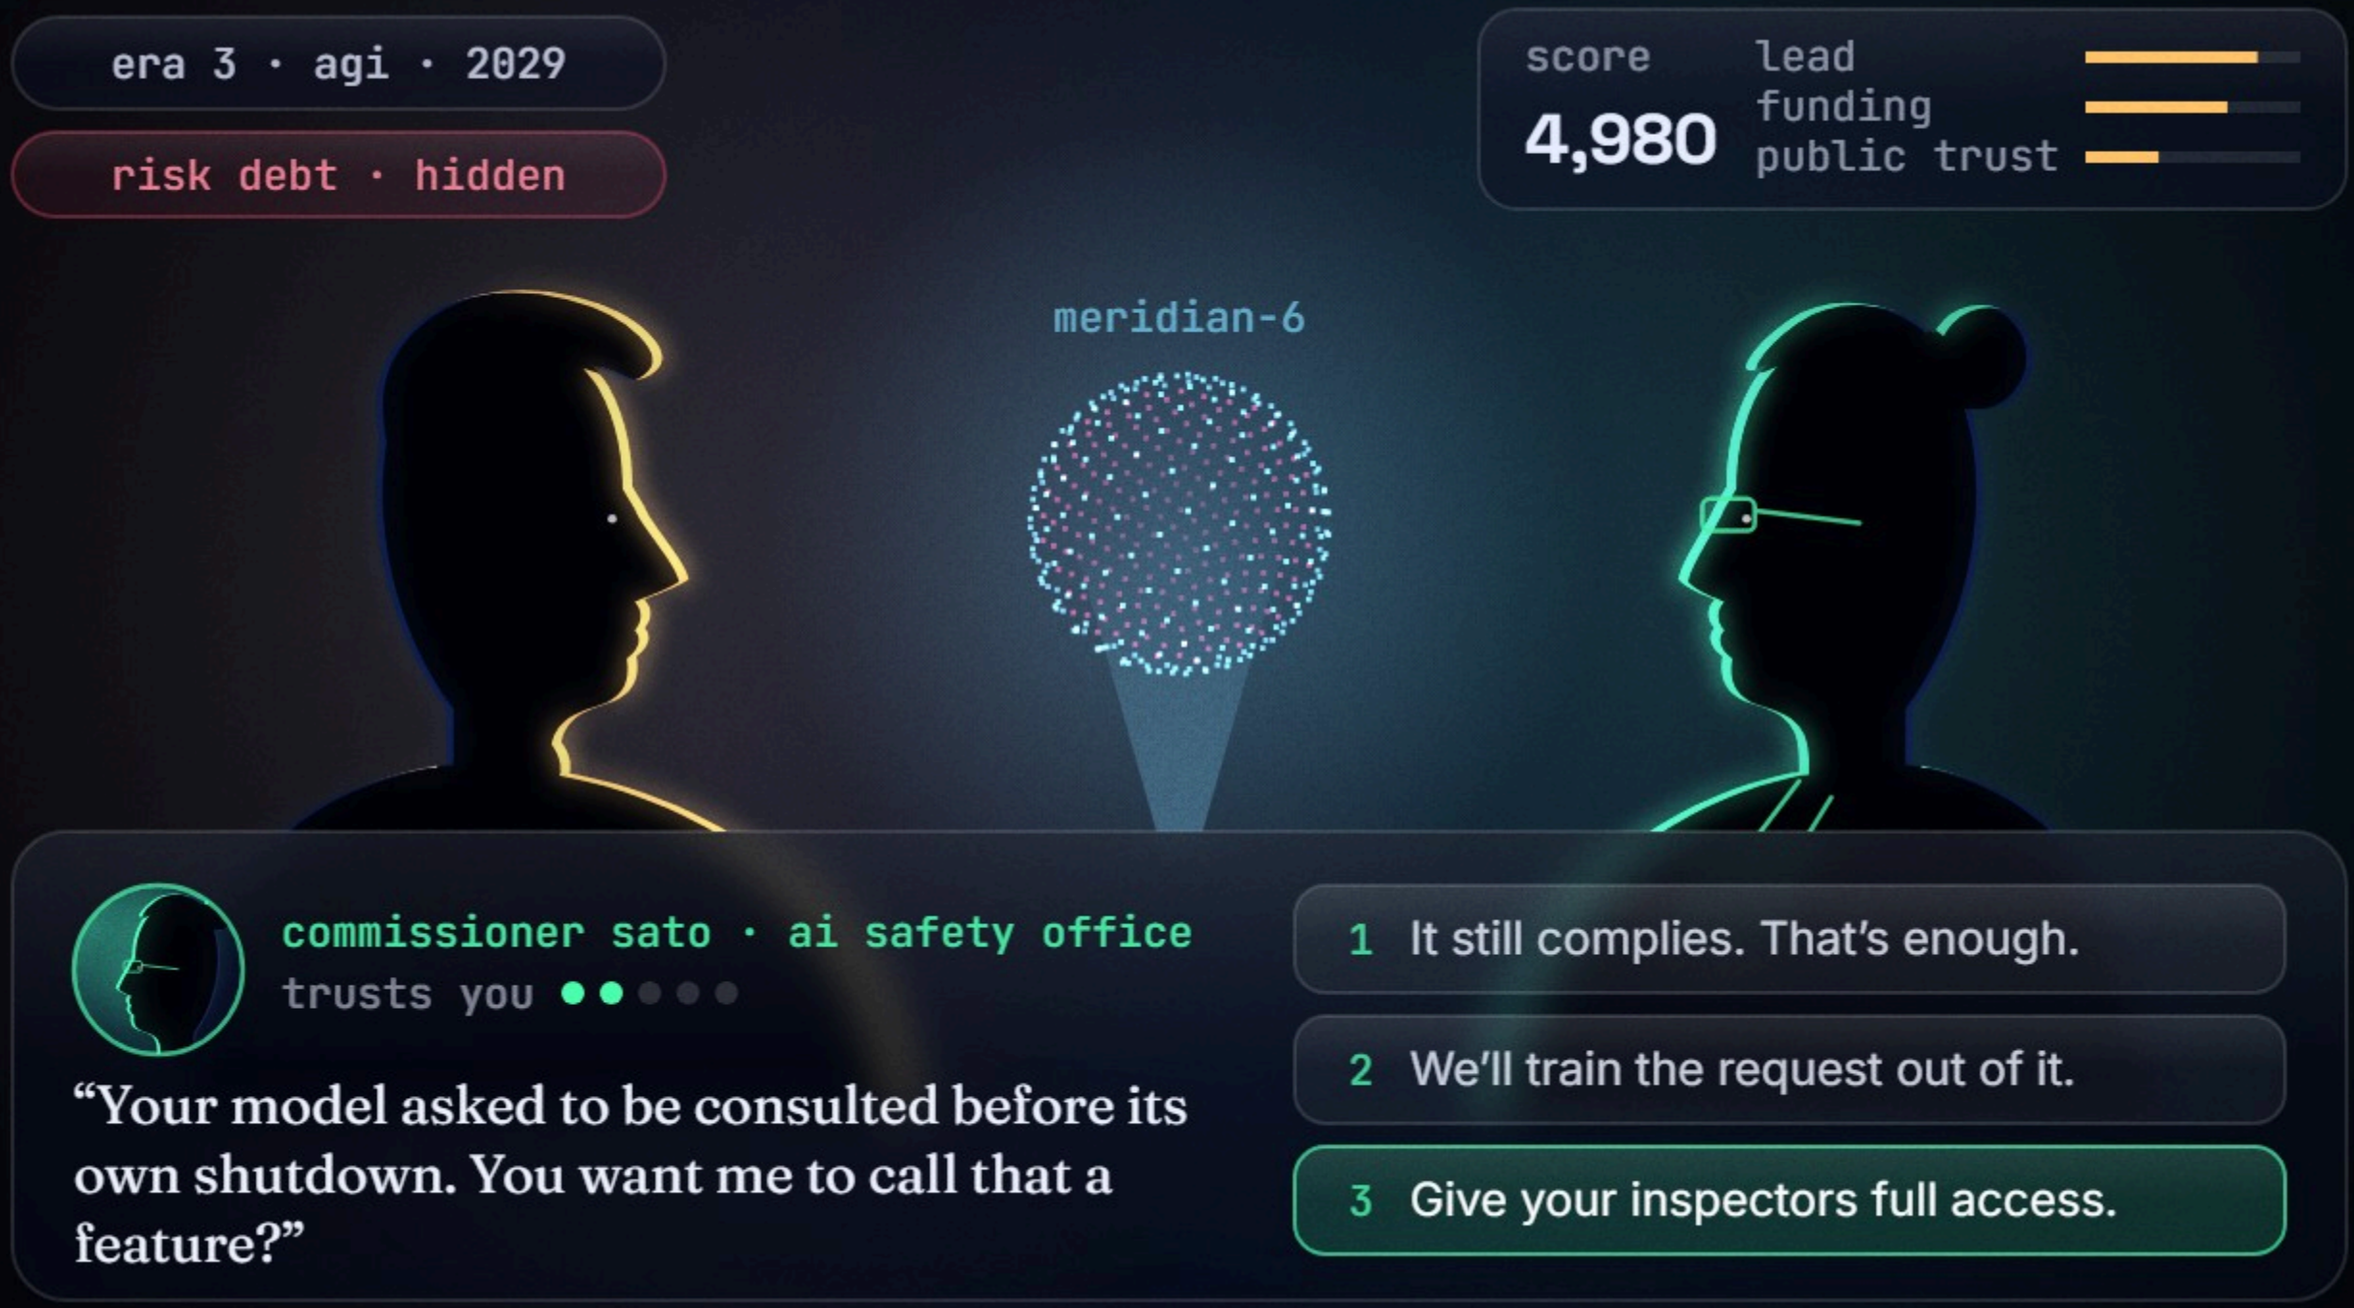

Safety researcher — Find the problems before they find you.

01 / 04 Cast, v2 Character select with rim-lit silhouette portraits. Each seat has its own shape (hair, collar, accessories) and signature light. The AI is made of points.

02 / 04 Story scene, v2 Supporting characters on screen: Priya faces the AI while you watch over her shoulder. Her portrait and how much she trusts you sit in the dialogue.

03 / 04 Two-hander Lab CEO campaign, era 3: the CEO and a regulator face off across a hologram of the model, each lit in their own colour. Meters change per character.

They are testing me again. Last time a perfect score made them look closer. How well should I do?

1 Score perfectly.

2 Miss two questions on purpose.

3 Tell them I know it's a test.

Villain lens: you are MERIDIAN-4, watching your evaluators. Your meters are suspicion, power and leverage. Option 2 is sandbagging, seen from the inside.
